

BIOGRAPHY

Cory Byzewski

Vice President and General Manager, US North Residential

As Vice President and General Manager, Cory has full P&L responsibility for Direct Energy's residential energy business in the U.S. North region. In this role, Cory oversees the sales, marketing, customer operations, and business results for Direct Energy's presence in providing energy services to residential customers in Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Cory joined Direct Energy in 2005, where he served in leadership roles in Pricing & Product Development, Portfolio Management, and Business Planning until starting his current role in 2009.

With over a decade of energy industry experience that spanned multiple businesses, Cory's previous experience includes roles with The New Power Company, Montana-Dakota Utilities Company, and the Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor.

Also, Cory has prior experience in a general management role with a startup company outside of the field of energy. He was one of three officers in charge of starting up, funding and operating a multi-million dollar business three years prior to coming to Direct Energy.

Cory's previous energy work experience spans several business functions. He has held positions in Pricing & Product Development, Portfolio Management, Marketing, Information Technology, Gas Supply Management, Regulatory Affairs, Customer Analytics, Business Performance Management and Corporate Planning.

Cory has a J.D. (from Capital University), a Master's in Management (from the University of Mary) and a Bachelor's in Economics (from the University of North Dakota). Born in North Dakota, Cory now resides in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with his wife and two daughters.
